Postcards from the Seaside

Year 3

Our learning

In our history lessons this term we will compare life in Victorian Britain (when Victoria was Queen) to now.

We will use books and pictures to find out what caused seaside places like Eastbourne to become popular at this time.

Queen Victoria

Information

The Victorian period lasted from 1837 until 1901. The Industrial Revolution had changed the way many products were made.

Many people now worked in towns and cities and wanted to take holidays by the seaside.

The railways got better so people could travel to places like the seaside.

Places like Eastbourne became more popular.

Important Dates

1837— Victoria became Queen of England at the age of 18.

1849— The railway reaches Eastbourne.

1901— Queen Victoria dies.
